3885

3887

- 3885 Tripoli, Bohemond IV, Castle Copper, type 3, 1190? onwards, +CIVITAS, gateway with five crenellations, rev +TRIPOLIS, ornamental X-shaped cross, dot and crescent in each angle (Metcalf 536-538). Irregular flan, good fine. £50-60

- 3886 Tripoli, Bohemond IV, Castle Copper, type 2, 1187-1190?, +CIVITAS, gateway with five crenellations, rev +TRIPOLIS, ornamental X-shaped cross, dot and crescent in each angle (Metcalf 534-535). Slightly chipped, very fine. £50-60

- 3887 Tripoli (Sidon or other uncertain Syrian City, c.1250-1268), Anonymous Bronze Pougeoise, uncertain blundered Arabic legend, ChiRo pommeté, rev uncertain blundered Arabic legend, cross pommeté, pellets in upper left and lower right quarters 1.64g, 17.3mm (Malloy 35). Uneven strike, very fine, very rare. £100-120

- 3888 Sidon, Balian, 1229-1240, +D·E·N·I·E·R, rev +D·E·S·E·T·E (Metcalf 213, 214). Flan bent, a third of legend broken away, very fine, rare. £100-120

- 3889 Beirut, Raymond III of Tripoli, Lord of Beirut (1184-1186), T·V·R·R·I·S·, Tower of David, rev +D·A·V·I·T·, eight-pointed star (Metcalf 206, 207; Malloy 2). Fine. £100-120

- 3890 Sidon, Girard Grenier, c.1125-1170, Æ Pougeoise, +GIRARDVS, arrow, two pellets on each side, rev +SIDONIA, six-pointed star with pellets at the end of each ray, 0.90g (Metcalf second edition p.91; Malloy 1a; Schl V, 4). Crude style, legend blundered, good fine for the type and extremely rare. £250-300

Metcalf and Malloy question Schlumberger's attribution to Girard Grenier. A later anonymous Sidon mint seems more likely.

3893

- 3891 Tyre, Philip de Montfort (1246-1270), Æ Pougeoise, +PhCLIPC, cross pattée, rev + DE SVR, temple (Tyre cathedral?) with four columns and rounded doorway, 0.89g (Metcalf -; Malloy 2; Schl V, 14). Legends flat, corroded, good fine to very fine for the type, very rare. £140-180

- 3892 Tyre, John de Montfort (1270-1283), Æ Pougeoise, +Ioh SIRE, cross pattée, rev +DE·SVR, Temple with two columns, 0.86g (Metcalf 215; Schl V, 15; Malloy 4). Legends partly flat, very fine for the issue and very rare. £200-250

- 3893 Jerusalem, John of Brienne (1210-12, 1212-25), Billon Denier, probably struck 1218-1221 in Acre, +DAMIATA, crowned bust, locks of hair turn inwards, rev +IOhES: REX:, cross pattée, annulets in first<sup>t</sup> and third quarter (Metcalf 203; Malloy 43). Good very fine, rare. £150-200

Bezants and Dirhams

- 3895 Gold Imitation of Fatimid Dinar, 1187-1260 AD, with Caliph Al Amir Abu `Ali Al Mansur's inscriptions, crude Arabic inscriptions both sides, 3.62g (Malloy 5b). Very fine. £200-250

bought Pegasi Numismatics, c.2006

Although this attribution seems plausible, it is difficult to be sure due to the severe double-striking and the small flan

- 3896 Latin Kingdom of Jerusalem, Cut Gold Fragment, perhaps under Amaury (1163-1174), hexagram/octafoil, reading EX/EM (?), 1.14g (cf Metcalf pp.107-116; cf ANS MN 23, pl.29, 40; cf Malloy pp.68-69). Good very fine, rare. £250-300

3897 Tripoli Bezant, after 1187, pseudo-Arabic legends both sides, obv B(oamundus?), rev T(ripoli?) added (Metcalf 488-489). Some weakness in outer margin, otherwise good very fine and very rare. £250-300

3898 Tripoli Raymond II or III, imitating al-Mustansir (1136-1152, 1152-1187 AD), Gold Transitional Dinar, five line pseudo-Arabic inscription within double rings, legend around on both sides, 3.86g, 22mm (Metcalf 484 var; Malloy 2-3a; Schl V, 16). Good very fine. £400-500

A transitional type, neater in style than Malloy 3, and having the bars between the rings (as Malloy 2), but considerably cruder. Similar to the first types, attributed to Pons (1112-1136). Weight falls at the lower end of the range, all imitations being under weight.

3899 Latin Kingdom of Jerusalem, second phase, Gold Bezant of fine gold, struck 1148/59-1260, imitating the dinar of Fatimid Caliph al-Amir, Acre mint, 3.74g, 22.5mm, die axis ↑→ (Metcalf 119-125; Balog & Yvon 27b; Malloy 4). Good very fine, well centred strike. £200-250

3900 Latin Kingdom of Jerusalem, second phase, Gold Bezant of fine gold, struck 1148/59-1260, imitating the dinars of Fatimid Caliph al-Amir, Acre mint (Metcalf 119-125; Balog & Yvon 27b; Malloy 4). Very fine, a well centred strike. £200-250

3901 Mint of Acre (1148-1187), Gold Dinar, pseudo-Arabic legends both sides, 3.52g, 22.2mm (Metcalf 119-141; cf Malloy 3 or 5g). Some weakness, good very fine. £200-250

3902 County of Tripoli. Raymond III or Bohemond IV of Antioch (1152-1187-1233), Gold Bezant, third phase, struck c.1187, pseudo-Kufic legends, pellet and crescent in inner margin, rev pseudo-Kufic legends, pellet and crescent in inner margin, 3.55g, die axis ↑← (Metcalf 487; Balog & Yvon 7; Malloy 4 or 4a). Hairline flan crack, otherwise very fine, toned, rare. £150-200

3903 Tripoli, Raymond II or III (1137-1187), Gold Bezant, first phase to 1165, imitation of a Fatimid Dinar of al-Mustansir (Metcalf BY 2, 484, 485). Slightly buckled, very fine. £400-500

bought Baldwin's, 19 February 2008

- 3904 County of Tripoli, Raymond II or III, Gold Bezant, second phase, c.1148/59-1187, imitation of a Fatimid Dinar of al-Mustansir, 23mm, 3.63g, die axis ↗ (Metcalf 486 var; Balog & Yvon 5 and 11; Malloy 9 (Antioch)). Extremely fine. £800-1000

- 3905 Latin Kingdom of Jerusalem, Gold Bezant, anonymous, no date or mint, Acre?, high gold content type imitation of a Fatimid Dinar of al-Amer, 3.58g, 23mm (Metcalf 119-134; Album type 730). Extremely fine. £200-250

- 3907 Jerusalem, Silver Dirham, imitation of Damascus Dirham of Ayyubid, as-Salih Ismail, AD 1253, Arabic legend within a central square, surrounded by further legends both sides, 2.74g (Metcalf 233-239, Malloy 9; Bates type 5). Green toning, almost extremely fine. £150-200
- 3908 Crusaders, silver Dirham, 13th Century, imitating Ayyubids of Aleppo, al-Zahir Ghazi, pseudo-Arabic inscriptions within a star-shaped pattern both sides, 2.7g, 20mm (Metcalf 216-219; Album 836 for type). Fine. £150-200
- 3909 Frankish Greece, Despotate of Epiros, Philip of Taranto (1294-1313), Billon Denier Tournois (2), Lepanto (Metcalf 1082, 1105); French feudal Deniers (3). Very fine or better. (5) £80-100
- 3910 Frankish Greece, Duchy of Athens, Guy de la Roche (1294-1308), Silver Denier Tournois (3), Thebes (Metcalf 1027-1029, 1059). Good very fine. (3) £60-80

- 3911 Frankish Greece, Principality of Achaia, Billon Denier Tournois (5), Charles d'Anjou (1246-1285), Florent de Hainaut (1289-1297), Isabelle de Villehardouin (1297-1301), Philippe de Savoie (1301-1307), Philippe de Taranto (1307-1313) (Metcalf 942, 953, 962, 977, 983). Darkly toned, mostly very fine. (5) £80-100
- 3912 Antioch, Billon Helmet Deniers (6), unidentified; Byzantine anonymous Follis, attributed to Nicephorous III (1078-1081); Mediaeval Lead Tokens (3). Fine to very fine. (10) £100-150

Books

A COLLECTION OF SOUTH AMERICAN COB COINAGE

- 3916 Philip II of Spain (1554-1598), 8-Reales, Potosi mint, assayer "B" (Juan Ballesteros Narvaez), on a large flan with full legends, commas for punctuation, rosette above cross, eight fleur de lys for New Burgundy in Habsburg shield, 27.44g (Calico 158). Good very fine. £300-400

- 3917 Philip II of Spain, 8-Reales, Potosi mint, assayer "B", rev seven-pointed star above cross, no punctuation in legend, 26.9g (Calico 158). Shield double struck, good very fine. £250-350

- 3918 Philip II of Spain, 8-Reales, Potosi mint, assayer "B", clear Habsburg shield, five fleur de lys, 27.21g (Calico 158). Very fine, slightly irregular flan, missing some legend but clear lions and castle. £200-300

- 3919 Philip II of Spain, 8-Reales, Potosi mint, assayer "B", eight fleur de lys, 26.88g (Calico 158). Excellent obverse strike on a full round flan with full legends, the reverse a little weaker, good very fine, a choice example of this type. £400-600

- 3920 Philip II of Spain, 8-Reales, Potosi mint, nearly full shield with assayer "S" over "B", seven fleur de lys, 27.15g (Calico 158/163). Some flat areas in the stike, otherwise very fine, rare. £300-400

- 3921 Philip II of Spain, 8-Reales, Potosi mint, assayer "S" over "B" as previous lot, but a superior specimen, seven fleur de lys, clear Habsburg shield, commas for punctuation, 25.99g (Calico 158/163). An attractive full, round coin, with clear curving "S" and clear upright of the "B" to the left side of "S", very fine. £400-600

- 3922 Philip II of Spain, 8-Reales, Potosi mint, assayer "S" (Pedro Sanchez or Cristobal de Segovia), the very important "S" is 100% certain without magnification and there is no trace of assayers over- or under-type, ND (c.1580s), 27.48g (Calico 163, this coin). Weakly struck in places, on a slightly off-round flan and with a distinctive flan flaw at 5 o'clock, otherwise very fine and unique. An important discovery piece. £8000-10,000

Calico plate coin.

Currently unique and much rarer than the Potosi Rincon 8-Reales (probably 6 known), sold in the Karon collection sale, Chicago 1990, for US$17,600

This coin relates to the period around 1580, when there appeared to be five assayers at the Potosi mint: B, C (previously thought to be at the La Plata mint), L, S and X. Although this assayer "S" is mentioned in the early classic reference works by J T Medina, Burzio and others, it was not included in any modern reference work until this current coin surfaced and was authenticated by Sedwick, Dym and others at the Sellschopp SBC auction in Zurich, 1988. To quote Sellschopp (who probably handled more non shipwreck Potosi cobs than anyone else) on page 150 of his 1971 book "assayers "S" and "E" of this period must be omitted, since their very existence is probably the result of erroneous interpretation" It is now included in the second edition of Sedwick (1988), Menzal (2004, with photo of this coin) and the current Calico (2008, also this coin illustrated). After this coin was found, some observant cob enthusiasts found several assayer S/B overtype coins and, in addition, there is a ½-Reale of Potosi with a very clear "S" assayer.

- 3923 Philip II of Spain, 8-Reales, Potosi mint, assayer "A" (Juan Alvarez Reinaltes), 27.07g (Calico 157). A well struck coin with little wear and lots of excellent detail, practically as struck, about extremely fine. £250-350

This assayer often struck this denomination with "VIII" to the right of the shield, so effectively a "9-Reales"!

- 3924 Philip II of Spain, 8-Reales, Potosi mint, assayer "RL" monogram (Baltasar Ramos Leceta), rev interesting "Flaming Castles", 27.20g (Calico 159). An above average specimen, nicely toned with clear scarce assayer, very fine. £250-350

priced at 1000 Euros in Calico

- 3925 Philip II of Spain, 8-Reales, Potosi mint, assayer "RL" monogram, similar to the previous lot but a much superior specimen, 27.33g (Calico 159). On a nice large round flan with all central detail, the obverse clear and boldly struck, good very fine, scarce assayer. £400-600

- 3926 Philip II of Spain, 8-Reales, Potosi mint, assayer RL, 27.30g (Calico 159). Well struck with full shield and clear assayer monogram, nice very fine. £250-350

- 3927 Philip II of Spain, 8-Reales, Potosi mint, assayer RL, 26.81g (Calico 159). Attractive dark toning, clearer strike than is usual, good very fine. £250-350

- 3928 Philip II of Spain, 8-Reales, assayer "B", of later period with small "B", 27.13g (Calico 158 var). A nice example, lower curve of "B" not well struck making it look like an "R", very fine. £200-300

- 3929 Philip III of Spain (1598-1621), 8-Reales, Potosi mint, assayer "B" (probably Hernando Ballasteros, brother of the previous Juan), clear "III" of king's ordinal, 26.72g (Calico 121). One or two areas of weaker strike as is normal for this period, though above average for type, light golden toning, very fine. £200-250

- 3930 Philip III of Spain, 8-Reales, Potosi mint, assayer "R", if not for the very minor doubling and one or two small flat areas of strike, this would certainly qualify as a very special strike, it is certainly head and shoulders above the usual mint products of the time, full weight at 27.07g (Calico 126). Extremely well struck and well centred on a very large, full round flan, beautiful dark toning, choice very fine. £600-800

Perhaps an early Royal Presentation type. According to Lazaro, in his excellent work on "Los Redondos" (1996), the first royal strike 8-Reales of the Potosi mint was dated 1630. However, cob collectors are aware of a handful of earlier strikes that exhibit all the criteria of these special coins.

- 3931 Philip III of Spain, 8-Reales, Potosi mint, 1617M (probably Juan Munoz), rev clear but not deeply struck full four-digit date in legend, 26.74g (Calico 129). Patchy toning, good very fine for issue. £400-600

This is the first confirmed dated coin of Potosi, despite the 1616 quoted in some reference works. All dated shield type coins of the Potosi mint are scarce to extremely rare (or even unknown). It would appear that the mint workers tried harder than usual to get the dates struck on these coins as they were the first dated coin of the mint, as a result, the 1617 is one of the less scarce dates in the series. Compared to the earlier issues of Philip II, you can see beginnings of the decline in the quality of the Potosi coinage due to the huge quantities of silver coming out of the fabulous "silver mountain" of Potosi.

- 3932 Philip III of Spain, 8-Reales, Potosi mint, 1617M, similar to the previous lot but better struck, with full and clear shield, 27.11g (Calico 129). Only the lower parts of the date evident in the reverse legend but nicely toned, very fine. £300-400
- 3933 Philip III of Spain, 8-Reales, Potosi mint, 1620(T) (Juan Ximenez de Tapia), rev lions and castles transposed as is common for this period, 21.84g (Calico 137). A shipwreck coin, brightly cleaned, lower halves of the date numerals clear, good fine. £100-150

- 3934 Philip IV of Spain (1621-1665), 8-Reales, Potosi mint, 16ZIIIT (1623), rev lions and castles transposed, 26.52g (Calico 459). An excellent example of this rare anomaly, well struck centres but a little short of flan resulting in much of the legend off the flan, highly unusual and interesting, very fine. £600-800

One of the rarest and most unusual coins in the Potosi series, with the date rendered as "16ZIIIT". Presumably, this was due to the lack of a numeral "3" in the Potosi tool box at the time.

- 3935 Philip IV of Spain, 8-Reales, Potosi mint, 1629 (as "16Z9"), lacking assayer monogram due to double striking of the shield (would have been "T" or "P"), 26.52g (Calico 470). Very fine. £250-350

a full clear four digit date makes this a premium coin for Potosi date collectors

- 3936 Philip IV of Spain, Error 8-Reales, Potosi mint, (16)29 P (Pedro Martin de Palencia(?)), bold "Z9" for date, clear and mintmark and assayer initials, rev lions and castles transposed, and, unusually, transposed top half of the Habsburg shield, with Aragon, Naples and Sicily to the left, Castille & Leon to the right, 25.75g (Calico -). Well struck, very fine and a scarce shield error. £250-350

This assayer "P" not listed in Calico for this date, so quite a rare coin

- 3937 Philip IV of Spain, 8-Reales, Potosi mint, 1631T (Tapia), full four-digit date, 26.70g (Calico 473). Very fine, some encrustation, a scarce coin with a great pedigree. £250-350

ex Sellschopp collection, SBC auction, April 1988, lot 667

- 3938 Philip IV of Spain, 8-Reales, Potosi mint, 1635T, date with an interesting double striking that reads "1635", 26.59g (Calico 477). A shipwreck coin but with clear detail, cleaned, about very fine. £200-250

- 3939 Philip IV of Spain, 8-Reales, Potosi mint, 1637TR (Pedro Trevino), 27.31g (Calico 480). Date area double struck but very clear date, a few flat areas as is usual, about very fine. £200-300

- 3940 Philip IV of Spain, 8-Reales, Potosi mint, 1640TR (Sellschopp 494, this coin; Calico 483). Small hole to right of shield, well struck, good very fine and a great pedigree. £200-300

ex Sellschopp collection, SBC auction, April 1988, lot 675

- 3941 Philip IV of Spain, 8-Reales (2), Potosi mint, 1640, first with clear "6" and bold "4" in date and enough of the "0" to be certain, 27.47g, and an ex shipwreck example, clear "40" in date, 23.66g (Calico 483). About very fine. (2) £200-250

- 3942 Philip IV of Spain, 8-Reales, Potosi mint, 1644TR, a little overweight, 28.28g (Calico 490). Good very fine, well struck "44" in this rare date. £300-400

All dated coins from the mid to late 1640s are rare due to the fact that most were melted down after corruption at the mint was exposed

- 3943 Philip IV of Spain, 8-Reales, Potosi mint, 1645, assayer missing to left of shield, 26.47g (Calico 492 var). Very fine for issue, well struck and a rare date. £200-300 from the recent "Panama Hoard", identified by the reddish earth deposits found on most coins from this group

- 3944 Philip IV of Spain, 8-Reales, 1646V (Geronimo Velazquez), rev clear "46" of date at 11 o'clock, struck with small punches, possibly from the 2-Reales die set, 26.72g (Calico 496). Good very fine and rare so well struck and in such high grade. £500-700

This assayer only operated for a short while in 1646 before being arrested for mint corruption, therefore his coins are extremely rare

- 3945 Philip IV of Spain, 8-Reales, Potosi mint, 1649Z (Pedro Zambrano), bold date with clear "9" and unusual "Z" with a tail, rev round revalidation stamp, devaluing the coin to 7½-Reales, 26.28g (Calico 508). Good very fine, rare. £400-600

This coin has been salvaged from the "Capitana" wreck, which sank off the coast of Ecuador in 1654. The ship carried a very large quantity of Potosi coinage from the interesting revalidation and transitional periods of the late 1640s and 1652-1653. Only a very few of this extremely rare date (1649) were recovered and even less of the quality of this coin. Cob collectors are fortunate that the corpus of "cob" coinage has vastly increased in recent times with the recovery of bullion from shipwrecks.

- 3946 Philip IV of Spain, 8-Reales, Potosi mint, 1651O/E (Antonio de Ergueta over Juan Rodriguez Roas), well struck crowned "F" countermarks, 25.18g (Calico 512). Very fine, clear date and rare "over assayer". £300-400 from the Carpitana wreck, Ecuador (1654)

- 3947 Philip IV of Spain, 8-Reales, date missing (1651 or 1652), assayer "E", muddled revaluation countermark, 26.27g (Calico 511 or 512). Good very fine with full shield. £150-250

- 3948 Philip IV of Spain, 8-Reales, 1652E, nearly complete Habsburg shield, clear mm, denomination and "52" of date at 11 o'clock (Calico 515). Fine to about very fine, rare. £400-600

From the Maravillas wreck. The Spanish galleon Nuestra Senora de las Maravillas was lost in January 1656 in the waters of Little Bahama Bank. The ship was struck by the lead Capitana while executing evasive maneuvers to steer clear of the shallows. The shipwreck was discovered in August 1972.

The date on this coin is scarce for transitionals, common for business strikes, but excessively rare for the shield type 8-Reales of Potosi. Only about a dozen are known to exist. Most of the other known coins have countermarks, this one does not, making it even rarer.

- 3949 Philip IV of Spain, 8-Reales, 1652E, McLean type 1 obverse, "F . 8 . IIII" in centre, PLVSVLTRA below, 17.80g (Calico 515 var). Excellent well struck centre portion of obverse, reverse with corrosion damage, extremely fine / very good. £400-600 from a Spanish ship sunk off the Jupiter inlet, Florida, in 1659.

One of only eight recorded major varieties of the transitional coinage of this year. "Type 1" is one of the rarer varieties of the period

- 3950 Philip IV of Spain, 8-Reales, 1652E, McLean type IV obverse, 18.94g (Calico 515 var) Excellent obverse detail, fine to about very fine. £400-600

ex Horst Brunner collection

- 3951 Charles II of Spain (1665-1700), 8-Reales, 4-Reales, 5-Reales, 1-Real and 1/2-Real, 1688VR (Pedro de Villar (?)), most have double dates, the 4-Reales has three dates (see lot 45 for Sellschopp's Lima 1688; Calico 373, 516, 617, 727, 839). Generally very fine or nearly so, the 1/2-Real rare with double date. (5) £800-1200

ex Sellschopp collection, SBC auction, April 1988

these were clearly selected by Sellschopp as above average specimens and forms the "must have" date-set for collectors of "Pieces of Eight"

- 3952 Charles II of Spain, 8-Reales, Lima, Peru mint, 1688R (Miguel de Rojas Paramo), two very clear dates, 27.49g (Calico 231). Bold very fine. £300-400

the key date of the series

ex Sellschopp collection, SBC auction, April 1988, lot 175, with auction envelope

- 3953 Philip II to Philip IV, 8-Reales (10), Potosi, shield types, including dates 1624, 1629, 1630, a good cross section of cobs, some dated or partially dated, some from wrecks. Very good to about very fine, a good study group. (10) £600-800

- 3954 Philip II to Philip IV, 8-Reales (10), Potosi, shield types, including dates 1622, 1629, 1636, 1640 and 1651E/0, this last with clear crowned countermark and "over assayer", ex Maravillas wreck. Very good to about very fine. (10) £800-1200

- 3955 Philip II to Philip IV, 8-Reales (10), Potosi, shield types, including dates 1618, 1622, 1635 and a nice assayer "Q" from pre-dated period (c.1616). Very good to about extremely fine. (10) £800-1200

- 3956 Philip II to Philip IV, 8-Reales (7), Potosi, shield types, including two major unlisted error coins, two nice undated assayer "Q" coins and one date 1640. Very good to about very fine. (7) £600-800

- 3957 Philip IV of Spain, 8-Reales, Colombia, Nuevo Reino mint, 1643R (unlisted date for the mint), very large flan of even thickness, with the typical "NR cut" to the edges, underweight at 24.39g (Calico type 114). Very fine and very rare. £500-700

All Nuevo Reino mint cobs are rare to extremely rare.

Some of the important detail can only be seen under powerful magnification but a careful die comparison has resulted in an almost exact match with Lasser & Restrepo, Cob coinage of Colombia, second edition (2000), no.18 (p.62). Here they tentatively assign a date of 1642. The date on our example 90% certain with the top of the "R" assayer showing to the left of the shield.

- 3958 Philip II of Spain, 8-Reales, Lima, Peru mint, assayer Do (Diego de la Torre), 26.90g (Calico 148). Well struck and centred example of this desirable Lima issue, about very fine. £700-900

only 9 varieties listed in Calico for this assayer

- 3959 Philip IV of Spain, 8-Reales, Lima, Peru mint, 1659V (Francisco de Villegas), unofficial "Star of Lima" issue, "L * M" variety, 27.34g (Calico 264). Clear and well struck date and assayer, a very nice example of this rare issue, very fine. £800-1000 purchased from Spink, 1987, for £60

- 3960 Philip IV of Spain, 8-Reales, Lima, Peru mint, 1660V, clear "660" evident in date, similar to Calico 266, same obverse design, but different dies, rev similar to Calico 266 but legend starts in a different area with "REX" at top of cross rather than "HISP", 27.47g (cf Calico 266). Very fine, rare. £4000-6000

ex Sellschopp collection, SBC auction, April 1988, lot 154

- 3961 Philip V of Spain, 8-Reales, Mexico mint, 1732F (Felipe Rivas Angulo), very clear and deeply struck "732" of date, 25.86g (Calico 763). Very fine and scarce as a non-wreck coin. £200-300

same date as the first of the Pillar coinage series

2-Reales Cobs

Probably the largest group to be offered at auction in the last 10 or 20 years

- 3962 Philip IV of Spain (1621-1665), 2-Reales, Potosi mint, 1652E, an almost perfect miniature of the McLean type IV obverse, rev similar to McLean type 1, but with the date numerals one each side of the shield, rather than both on the right, 6.36g (Calico 894). Top quarter not fully struck up, otherwise detail bold, darkly toned, extremely fine for issue, an extremely rare transitional coin. £250-350

varieties of this series have yet to be published but can be related to the 8-Reales series, as recorded by McLean

- 3963 Philip IV of Spain, 2-Reales, Potosi mint, 1654E, three clear dates, 6.90g (Calico 899). Extremely fine. £250-350
- 3964 Philip IV of Spain, 2-Reales, Potosi mint, 1660E, three clear dates, 6.73g (Calico 908). Good very fine, the reverse especially nice. £200-300

- 3965 Charles II of Spain (1665-1700), Mule 2-Reales, Potosi mint, obv (16)77E, rev (1)776E, 6.21g (Calico 604). Good very fine, the reverse date double struck, extremely rare. £200-300

ex Virrey Toledo auction, Barcelona, 2007, lot 495

- 3966 Charles II of Spain, 2-Reales (2), Potosi mint, 1678E, 1681V, both double dated (Calico 606, 610). Very fine to good very fine. (2) £200-300

3967 Charles II of Spain, 2-Reales, Potosi mint, 1682V, three dates, 6.45g (Calico 611). About extremely fine for issue. £200-300

3968 Charles II of Spain, 2-Reales, Potosi mint, 1683V, three dates, 6.01g (Calico 612). Centre strike both sides near perfect, very fine. £200-300

3969 Charles II of Spain, 2-Reales (8), Potosi mint, 1653E, 1655E, 1659,E, 1660E, 1661E, 1671/0E (unlisted overdate), 1673E, 1684VR. Generally fine to good very fine, the 1673E holed. (8) £500-700

3970 Charles II of Spain, 2-Reales (2), Potosi mint, 1684VR, 1687VR, both dbl dated. Very fine or better. (2) £200-300

3971 Charles II of Spain, 2-Reales (2), Potosi mint, 1688VR. Very fine or better, one holed. (2) £200-300

3972 Charles II of Spain, 2-Reales (2), Potosi mint, 1689VR, heart-shaped, 1690VR. First good very fine, the second nice very fine. (2) £250-350

3973 Charles II of Spain, 2-Reales (2), Potosi mint, 1690VR, 1694VR. Very fine or better. (2) £200-300

3974 Charles II of Spain, 2-Reales (3), Potosi mint, 1693VR, 1695VR, 1696VR. All very fine or nearly so. (3) £250-350

- 3975 Charles II of Spain, 2-Reales (2), Potosi mint, 1697CH, rev clear "CH", 1700F. Both very fine and very scarce. (2) £350-450

ex Virrey Toledo auction, Barcelona, 2007

- 3976 Philip V of Spain (1724-1746), 2-Reales (2), Potosi mint, 1726Y, in the name of Louis I, 1727Y, in the name of Louis I or Philip V. Both very fine, the second holed. (2) £200-250

- 3977 Philip V of Spain (1724-1746), Error 2-Reales, 1730M, rev struck with 1-Real dies ("1" above cross); other 2-Reales (2), 1731M, 1732M. Very fine to good very fine, the first extremely rare. (3) £350-450

- 3978 Cob 2-Reales (10), Potosi mint, 1699F, 1701(Y), 1703Y, 1704Y, 1707Y, 1710Y, 1716(Y), 1728M, 1729M. Mixed grades, fine to very fine. (10) £500-700

- 3979 Cob 2-Reales (10), 1730M, 1733YA, 1734E, 1734E, cut to heart shape, 1735E, 1736E, 1740M. 1741P, 1742C/P, "over-assayer", 1743C. Generally fine to very fine, the 1734E with a small hole, the 1733YA scarce. (10) £600-800

- 3980 Cob 2-Reales (8), 1744q, 1745/4q, 1745q, 1746q, 1748q, engraved "CSt", 1748q, 1748/7q, 1749q. Mostly very fine, the 1745/4 and 1748/7 both unlisted overdates. (8) £500-700

- 3981 Cob 2-Reales (10), 1750, 1751E/q (?), 1752q, 1754C, 1755C, 1758, 1759q, 1762V (2), 1763V. Generally fine to very fine. (10) £400-600

- 3982 Cob 2-Reales (9), 1764/3Y, overdate and assayer both unlisted for this year, 1764, 1765, 1767, 1768, 1769V, 1771/6, unlisted and unusual overdate, 1773/2, unlisted overdate, 1773. Very good to very fine. (9) £400-600

the 1769V of unusually good quality for the notoriously poorly struck coinage of this year

- 3983 Philip II of Spain, 2-Reales, Lima, Peru mint, assayer "oD" (Diego de la Torre) struck over "X" (Xines Martinez), complete legends and clear "D/X", 6.75g (this "over-assayer" unlisted in Calico, Calico 487 var). Well struck, about extremely fine, rare. £400-600

Xines Martinez was an earlier, very rare, assayer at this mint

- 3984 Philip II of Spain, 2-Reales, Lima, Peru mint, with "P II" to left, "oD *" to right, 6.79g (Calico 490). Well struck on a full round flan, choice extremely fine. £300-400

- 3985 Philip II of Spain, 2-Reales, Lima, Peru mint, with "P II" to left, "oD *" to right, 6.84g (Calico 490). Well struck, extremely fine. £300-400

- 3986 Philip II of Spain, 2-Reales, Lima, Peru mint, with "P II" to left, "oD *" to right, 6.66g (Calico 490). Well struck, extremely fine. £300-400

ex Thomas Faistauer collection, in old Henry Christensen auction envelope Catalogued as an error coin by Henry Christensen, with King's name as "P H I L I P V" but, on closer examination, it may be an interesting double strike

- 3987 Philip IV of Spain, 2-Reales, Lima, Peru mint, 1659V (Francisco de Villegas), unauthorised "Star of Lima" coinage of 1659-1660, star of Lima between the pillars, "LIM" with what looks like a bar across the right side of the "M", 6.22g (cf Calico 841, unlisted legend variety). Well struck very fine / extremely fine and rare. £1200-1500

Due to a shortage of coins for commerce in the Vice Royalty of Peru, the Lima mint was re-opened in early 1659 and coin production restarted in the hope that retrospective permission for this would be forthcoming from the King. Unfortunately for the Spanish authorities in Lima, the King refused permission (coining, with all its vast profits was the jealously guarded privilege of the Crown) and production was halted early in 1660. As a result, the 1660 dated coins are much rarer than those dated 1659. This has been exacerbated by the recent discovery of a Spanish shipwreck off the Jupiter inlet in Florida, from which a handful of mostly well eroded coins of 1659 were recovered, but no coins dated 1660. This coin is from that wreck, and must have been well protected on the site (for over 330 years) because it is in excellent condition, and is possibly the finest known for this rare issue. This legend on this reads "LIM" with what looks like a bar across the right side of the "M". This could possibly have been an attempt by the die sinker to create a monogram "MA" after he realised he did not have enough room for the full "LIMA"

- 3988 Philip IV of Spain, 2-Reales, Lima, Peru mint, 1660V, "PLVS" under the crown between pillars, "2 * 2" and date "660" below, "L" over "V" to right of pillars, reduced weight of 3.19g (Calico 842). From a shipwreck with moderate corrosion, very good to about fine and extremely rare. £250-350

A companion piece to the last lot but much rarer.

- 3989 Charles II of Spain, 2-Reales (5), Peru, Lima mint, 1685R, two dates, 1686R (2), 1687R, three dates, 1692V, obv regular "2", rev denomination as "Z". Very fine or better, first well struck, the 1687 choice. (5) £500-700

The 1692V is from the Princess Louisa wreck, an English East India ship which sank at the Cape Verde Islands, just off the West coast of Africa, in 1743.

Cobs from this mint for this period, from the re-opening of the mint in 1684 to about 1700, are recognised as being of higher quality than in any other period since the well struck pieces of the late 1500s. From 1700, like at the Potosi mint, there was a gradual deterioration until the last cob coins were minted (generally badly), in 1751, to be replaced by the pillar design.

The coins in this lot and those in the following four lots are above average examples of this period

- 3990 Charles II of Spain, 2-Reales (3), Peru, Lima mint, 1694M, two dates, 1694M, two and a half dates, 1695R, two dates. Very fine to extremely fine, well above average for the type. (3) £400-600

first Virrey Toledo auction, Barcelona, 2007

All cobs with multiple dates fetch a premium, while three dates are, naturally, highly desirable

- 3991 Charles II of Spain, 2-Reales (4), Peru, Lima mint, 1695R, 2½ dates, 1696H (2), one with three dates, one with two and a half dates, 1697H, two dates. An attractive group, generally very fine or better. (4) £500-700

- 3992 Charles II and Philip V, 2-Reales (5), Peru, Lima mint, 1697H, two clear dates, 1700H, two clear dates, 1701H (2), both with two dates, one with the assayer "H" on the reverse, 1702H. Generally very fine with attractive dark tone, the second double struck on the obverse, one 1701 with a small hole. (5) £300-400

- 3993 Philip V of Spain (1700-1746), 2-Reales (6), Lima mint, 1706R, clear strike, two dates, 1710H, second "1" of date oversized, 1714/3M, 1718M, two clear dates, very thick cross and design details, 1719M, two dates, 1723P, one clear date, three clear mintmarks and clear assayer. Generally very good to good very fine, the 1714/3M ex-mount, holed with solder on the obverse, a rare and unlisted overdate, the 1723P a rare unlisted assayer for the period. (6) £400-600

- 3994 Philip V of Spain, 2-Reales (8), Lima mint, 1723, two dates, 1727, 1728, two dates, 1729, two dates, 1731, 1731N, two dates, 1734N, 1734N. Generally very good to very fine, 1729, 1731 and 1734N holed. (8) £500-700

the 1728 and 1734N are from the Princess Louisa wreck (1743)

- 3995 Philip V of Spain, 2-Reales (8), Lima mint, 1732N, 1733N, 1735N, 1737/6N, 1737N, two dates, 1738N, 1740V, two dates, 1741V. Generally fine to very fine, the 1738 and 1740 holed, the last darkly toned, the 1737/6 a scarce overdate. (8) £400-600

- 3996 Philip V of Spain, 2-Reales, Lima, Peru mint, 1734N, Royal Presentation strike (unlisted in all reference works), three dates, all details bold and deeply struck, especially highlighting the detail on the lions and castles, due to the extra care taken with all aspects of the minting process for these coins, 5.19g (Calico 1223). Very light surface corrosion and one tiny edge knock (from the salvage operation) on the obverse at 4 o'clock, otherwise very fine and rare. £1200-1500 from the Princess Louisa wreck, an English East India ship which sank at the Cape Verde Islands, just off the West coast of Africa, in 1743.

- 3997 Philip V and Ferdinand VI, 2-Reales (10), Lima mint, 1742, 1742V, 1744V, 1746/4V, 1747V, 1748, 1749R, 1749, 1750, unusual Spanish "5" with no top bar, this is the first time that this date has been listed, 1751/0. Generally very good to very fine, 1742V, 1749 and 1751/0 holed, the 1742 darkly toned, 1746/4 and 1751/0 both rare unlisted overdates. (10) £500-700 the 1751/0 dated coin represents the last year of issue for cob coins before the introduction of the pillar series.

- 3998 Philip III of Spain (1598-1621), 2-Reales, Mexico mint, 1619/8, clear "19" of date with traces of the "8" underneath, both the date and overdate are unrecorded, most of the shield well struck, some flatness in the assayer position, but should be "D" (name unknown), for this period, 6.10g. About very fine, possibly a unique date combination. £250-350

All 2-Reales cobs of this mint are scarce to rare, particularly in the period from 1607 (first dated coinage) to 1700. From a possible 94 dates, only 17 are recorded by Krause (in 2004), and 18 by Calico (in 2008)

- 3999 Philip III of Spain, 2-Reales, Mexico mint, 1629P, obv "629" at 10/11 o'clock, "OMP" to left of shield, 6.67g (unlisted in all reference works). Fine, possibly unique. £250-350

- 4000 Philip IV of Spain, 2-Reales, Mexico mint, 1655, clear 4-digit date, bold "55", 5.21g (Calico 870). Very fine with light corrosion. £250-350

All dated 2-Reales cobs of this mint are rare to extremely rare This coin is one of the known dates. From the Spanish Galleon Nuestra Senora de Maravillas, which sank on the Bahama Bank in 1656 after a collision with another galleon

- 4001 Philip V of Spain, 2-Reales (3), all with clear dates, 1729R (2), one with clear assayer and "9" of date, and one with a clear and full date, same assayer, 1730R, 4-digit date, possibly R/G "over assayer". Generally fine to about very fine, a nice group. (3) £300-400

all recovered from the English East Indiaman, Princess Louisa, wrecked on the Island of Maio, Cape Verde Islands in 1743

- 4002 Philip V of Spain, 2-Reales (4), 1730R, 1731F (3), all with clear 4-digit dates. Generally about very fine, an attractive group. (4) £400-600

all recovered from the English East Indiaman, Princess Louisa, wrecked on the Island of Maio, Cape Verde Islands in 1743

- 4003 Philip III of Spain, 2-Reales (4), Mexico mint, all undated: 1) first a shipwreck coin, with unusual castles made up of a small block on top of another, larger block, 2) nearly complete Habsburg shield, rev cross and castles well struck, 3) clear "D/F" over assayer, flat in date area, but is attributable to 1618, the only known year of this over assayer, excellent shield, cross, lions and castles, 4) unlisted error, denomination to the right of the shield as "1" rather than "11". Very good to good very fine. (4) £200-300

- 4004 Philip III of Spain, 2-Reales, Colombia, Nuevo Reino or Cartagena mint, 1622, date identification 90% certain, 6.42g (Calico 316). Very fine. £800-1000

Sold originally during the immense publicity surrounding the find at the lavish Butterfield & Butterfield Las Vegas auction for a record price of $15,400.

Very early dated coins of the Colombian mints were practically unknown before the discovery of the Spanish Galleons "Atocha" and "Margarita" found by famous treasure hunter Mel Fisher off Key West in Florida (1985). Salvage efforts produced over 100,000 coins, mostly Potosi mint, but only a very few Colombian mint coins were found. With Mel Fisher certificate tag as 85A-237321

2-Reales Cobs or Macuquinas from mainland Spain

Cobs of mainland Spain were usually of better quality than the Spanish American mints and, unlike the Potosi and Lima mints with their multiple mintmarks, dates and assayers, the Spanish mainland coins only had one date, mintmark and, very occasionally, two assayer's initials. Usually the date was to the right of the Habsburg shield on the earlier coins, and in the legend, usually above the cross on the reverse, on the later coins.

- 4006 2-Reales (8), Granada mint, Philip II, 1593F, clear 4-digit date, 1595, clear 4-digit date, 1597M, reverse dated type, other very well struck coins of Philip II (3); Philip III, undated, assayer "M", 1603, assayer "M". A very nice group, good fine to about extremely fine. (8) £1200-1500

- 4007 Philip II to Charles II, 2-Reales (11), Madrid mint, including 1628 (3), 1627(?)V, unlisted date for mint, clear "V", 1628V, very clear "628", mintmark and assayer, 1628, base of the date numerals clear, 1628V, full 4-digit date, assayer and mintmark, and full ordinal of the King as "IIII", 1651, cut section of a 4-Reales (?), 4.94g, clear date, 1666, unlisted date, and an undated "Tipo Maria", assayer "BR". Generally very good to good fine, the 1666 about very good. (11) £1000-1500

- 4008 2-Reales (5), Segovia mint, aqueduct mintmark, two with tree (arbol) assayer mark, all known dated coins with this mintmark are 1597, the nicer of these two has a trace of the "7" evident (Calico 530); Philip II, 2-Reales (2), Valladolid mint, both clearly showing the wavy lines of the mintmark. Generally very good to very fine. (7) £500-700

Cobs of the Segovia and Valladolid mints are all scarce to rare.

A large Roman aqueduct is an archaeological feature of Segovia, hence the mintmark on these coins.

- 4009 Ferdinand & Isabella, 2-Reales, Seville mint, "Arrows & Yoke" design; Philip II of Spain, 2-Reales (10), Seville mint, early undated type (5), all well struck on broad, generally round flans, unusual "sideways" "P" assayer (name unknown); dated coinage (4), 1588, "P" assayer, 1593B, 1595B, 1595, all with clear 4-digit vertical dates to the right of the shield; (15)99, later design, rev date at the top of the legend. Generally very fine to about extremely fine, a nice group, well above average for type. (11) £1000-1500

The first dated coinage of Seville was struck in the year of the "Invincible Armada", 1588

- 4010 Philip III to Philip IV, 2-Reales, Seville mint, 1602B, 1609B, 1614V, 1617/6D, unlisted overdate, 1618, clear "618", 1619D, clear "1619", 1620, clear date, 1623, 1627 (2), both with clear "27", 1628 (2), one clear, the other with only the "8" clear, 1637, undated (5), including one struck with a cross on both sides. Generally very fine, 1609B, 1619D and 1637 rare. (18) £1000-1500

The 1619D is rare. During this period there were three assayers operating at the Seville mint, with initials "R", "G" and "D"; while the first two are known assayers for this date, "D" is not listed.

- 4011 2-Reales (21), Toledo mint, Philip II, undated series (2), one with plain "M" assayer, the other with the scarcer "M" within a large circle (or "O") variety; Philip II, 1596C (2), scarce to rare dates; Philip III, 1605C, scarce, 1609C, rev full 4-digit date at 6-8 o'clock in the legend, an unusual position for the date on any cob, scarce, 1612C, 1615C, unlisted date, 1619, full date, 1621/0, unlisted date for this king and an unlisted overdate, clear ordinal "III" for Philip III; Philip IV, 1623P, full date, 1628 (3), assayer "P"; date not evident (7). Generally fine to very fine, a nice group, one 1628 an exceptional example with date, mintmark and assayer all well struck. (21) £1200-1500

- 4012 Unattributable 2-Reales (8), missing mintmark or assayer, 1590, very clear date, 1591, 1596, 1601, 1608, clear date, 1619, 1622, and undated with clear "N" assayer. Generally fine to very fine, an interesting lot. (8) £700-900

A very useful study group. With a some careful study advanced collectors could probably identify the mints that these cobs are from.

The final cob in this lot is possibly excessively rare. It does not show a date but has a clear assayer "N". The style of this coin is early to mid-1600s, and the "N" assayer is recorded on 8- and 4-Reales (but not 1- or 2-Reales), of the Granada mint with known dates of 1621, 1651, and 1652. The present coin clearly a 2-Reales and could be the first known 2-Reales of this mint!

- 4013 Philip IV, 1-Real (2), Lima mint, 1660, unauthorised "Star of Lima" coinage of 1659-1660, two varieties, date above and below the 5-pointed star of Lima, one a shipwreck coin with good detail, the other holed, but clearly identifiable; Philip V, Unique Royal Presentation 1-Real, Lima mint, 1706R (Leonardo de Rojas), round flan (as usual), three clear dates, clear assayer's initials and mintmarks (unlisted in all reference works). Fine or better, all extremely rare, the last unique. (3) £600-800

see also lots 3987 and 3988 for the "Star of Lima" issues

Leonardo de Rojas was assayer for 1706 only. He was part of the Rojas family that had two predecessors as assayers at this mint, his father, Miguel, and grandfather Miguel de Rojas Paramo.

The 1706 real from a shipwreck source, possibly the Florida 1715 Fleet.

- 4014 Philip III, 1-Real (2), Potosi mint, 1617M, first confirmed date of this mint under Philip III, a nice example of the issue; 1617, unique, "Q" assyer, clear date with unusual retrograde "6"; Philip IV, 1-Real (2), Potosi mint, 1646, "4" and "6" of the date clear, no assayer initial, "T" was the assayer for this year; 1647, very clear "647". Good fine to very fine, all rare, the second unique. (4) £1200-1500 first the plate coin in the Grunthall Sellschopp reference book, and also the plate coin in Sellschopp's major work on the coins of the Lima and Potosi mints second from the Nuestra Señora de Atocha wreck, Florida Keys, 1622. With research note from the respected Latin American specialist, Louis Hudson Probably over 90% of the Potosi coins in the dated shield period of 1617-1651 have no trace of the date, one digit is considered rare, two digits more so, three or four digits (as with the last coin in this lot) is almost unheard of.

- 4015 Ferdinand VI, Royal Presentation 1-Real, Potosi mint, 1756q, nice round flan with all central details clear and well struck, without hole, unlike many "Royals" (unlisted in all reference works). Nice very fine, unlisted and unique. £1200-1500

a "must have" for any serious cob collection

- 4016 Philip IV, ¼-Real (Cuartilla), Colombia, Nuevo Reino mint, well struck and centred, well defined lion, rev castle. Darkly toned, good very fine, probably the finest known of this issue, rare. £1500-2000

ex Turner collection, Glendinings, May 1987

one of the smallest cobs to exist but also one of the rarest in this high grade

Sultanates

- 4198 Sultans of Dehli, Jalal al-Din Firuz (AH 689-695; AD 1290-1296), Gold Tanka, 10.9g, Dehli, year (6)93 (G&G D195, date not previously noted for this type). Good very fine. £400-500

- 4199 Sultans of Dehli, Qutb al-Din Mubarak (AH 716-720; AD 1316-1320), Silver ½-Tanka, 5.5g, without mint or date, legends al-imam al-a'zam qutb al-dunya wa'l din khalifa rabb al-'alamin / abu'l muzaffar mubarakshah al-sultan ibn al-sultan al-wathiq billah amir al-muminin (unpublished type, similar to G&G D265). Good very fine and extremely rare, possibly the only specimen known. £2000-2500

- 4200 Sultans of Dehli, Nasir al-Din Khusru (AH 720; AD 1320), Gold Tanka, Dehli, year 720 (G&G D290; R 1064; NW 424). Very fine and very rare. £1000-1500

Khusru was a former slave of Qutb al-Din Mubarak, who promoted him until he became the most powerful man in the sultanate, so powerful in fact that he was able to raise a rebellion and have the Sultan assassinated, thus putting an end to the Khilji Dynasty in Dehli. As a usurper, he did not live long to enjoy his new status, being defeated in battle in the same year by Ghazi Tughluq, who was chosen to be Sultan in his place and founded the Tughluq Dynasty.

- 4201 Sultans of Dehli, Muhammad bin Tuqhlug (AH 725-752; AD 1325-1351), Gold Tanka, 11.0g, struck in memory of his father, Ghiyath al-Din Tughluq, balda Qutbabad, year 726 (G&G D321). Very fine and rare. £400-500

- 4202 Sultans of Dehli, Muhammad bin Tuqhlug, Gold Tanka, 11.0g, in the name of the caliph al-Mustakfi, Daulatabad, year 745 (G&G D425). Good very fine, slightly crimped, rare. £400-500

- 4203 Sultans of Dehli, Muhammad bin Tuqhlug, Silver Tanka, 11.1g, in the name of the caliph al-Mustakfi, Dehli, year 742 (G&G D430). Fine/good fine, very rare. £400-500

Silver Tankas of this type were probably struck from dies meant for Gold Tankas. They are much rarer than the gold strikings.

- 4204 Sultans of Dehli, Muhammad bin Tughluq, Copper ½-Tankas (2), forced token currency, AH730 (G&G D410); Shahis of Kabul, early type of silver bull and horseman coin; Maldive Islands, Bodu Larin, Muhammad Mu'iz al-Din, AH 1189 (KM 28). Third toned, good very fine, the ½-Tankas extremely fine with some original silvering, the last very fine for type. (4) £100-150

all bought from Henry Christensen, c.1970, coin dealer, New Jersey, USA

- 4205 Sultans of Dehli, Firuz Shah Tughluq (AH 752-790; AD 1351-1388), Gold Tanka, 11.0g, year 788, rev naib Amir al momenin (G&G D466). About extremely fine. £800-1000

- 4206 Sultans of Dehli, Firuz Shah Zafar (AH 791; AD 1389), Gold Tanka, 11.1g, Dehli, year 791 (G&G D545). Good very fine and very rare, especially with visible mint and date. £800-1000

- 4207 Sultans of Dehli, Muhammad bin Farid (AH 837-849; AD 1434-1445), Silver Tanka, 11.4g, year 841 (G&G D671; R 1480; NW 897A). Very fine, full date visible and top weight for type, very rare £600-800

- 4208 Sultans of Dehli, Sher Shah Suri (AH 945-952; AD 1538-1545), ½-Rupee, 5.7g, Jahanpanah type, year 948 (G&G D810). About very fine, couple of shroff marks, very rare. £400-500

all fractions of the Suri rulers are very rare and seldom available

- 4209 Sultans of Dehli, Sher Shah Suri: Silver ½-Rupee, 5.6g, Shergarh Bakkar, date off flan (G&G D805). Very fine, a few shroff marks, very rare. £400-500

- 4210 Sultans of Dehli, Sikandar Shah Suri (AH 961?-962; AD 1554?-1555), Silver Rupee, Agra, 11.4g, year 962 (G&G D1151). Very fine, with practically full mintname, extremely rare. £2000-3000

All coin types of Sikandar Suri are at least rare. The Rupees usually encountered were struck at Lahore (see following lot). Rupees of Agra are very much rarer, very few being known. The present coin is better than the one illustrated in G&G which only have shows a rubbing and of great importance to any collection of this series.

- 4211 Sultans of Dehli, Sikandar Shah Suri, Silver Rupee, Lahore, year 962 (G&G D1150). Very fine with a few shroff marks, rare. £500-700

- 4212 Sultans of Delhi/Bengal, Joint Issue Silver Tanka, 10.7g, in the names of Ghiyath al-Din Bahadur and Muhammad bin Tughluq, mint and date off flan but struck at Sunargaon in the year 728 (G&G B116; R 162). Very fine, a little deterioration at the edge, very rare. £400-500

Muhammad Tughluq installed Bahadur Shah as his Governor in Bengal in Sunnargaon around AH 726. The silver and gold coins were struck two years later in AH 728, both are rare.

- 4213 Sultans of Bengal, Nasir al-Din Nusrat (AH 925-938; AD 1519-1531), Silver Tanka, 10.7g, Barbakabad, garbled date (G&G B801). With a broad flan, very fine and rare, much nicer than the coin illustrated in G&G. £100-150

- 4214 Sultans of Jaunpur, Husein Shah (AH 863-884; AD 1458-1479), Gold Tanka, 11.09g, year (8)79, same design and legends as the normal billon tanka, "Husain Shah bin Mahmud Shah bin Ibrahim Shah sultani khulidat malakatahu", rev "al khalifa amir al momenin Khulidat Khilafatahu" (cf G&G J27). Very fine, some red adhesions, unpublished and possibly unique. £5000-6000

It is difficult to know the status of this coin is. The normal gold coins of this sultanate are quite distinctive, usually having the sultan's name in toughra characters on the obverse and a central legend within a margin on the reverse. The present coin is, thus, quite anomalous.

4215 Sultans of Malwa, Ghiyath Shah (AH 873-906; AD 1469-1500), Square Gold Tanka, 10.6g, year 887 (engraved retrograde) (G&G M67). Good very fine. £500-600

4216 Sultans of Malwa, Ghiyath Shah, Square Gold Tanka, 11.1g, year 892 (G&G M67). Good very fine. £500-600

4217 Sultans of Malwa, Nasir Shah (AH 906-916; AD 1500-1510), Gold Tanka, 11.11g, year 913 (G&G M105); Bahmanis of the Deccan, Muhammad I (AH 760-777; AD 1359-1375), Silver Tanka, Ahsanabad, date only partly visible, possibly 762 (G&G BH 27). First extremely fine with one text mark, a scarce date, the second about extremely fine. (2) £400-500

4218 Sultans of Bijapur, Gold Pagoda, 3.4g, uncertain symbols on both sides (G&G BJ49). Extremely fine. £100-120

4227 Shah 'Alam II, Silver Rupee, Dal al Khilafat Shahjahanabad, AH 121x, year 46, star and chhatra mintmarks. Extremely fine and rare. £500-600

This Rupee is similar to the coins struck by the Maratha rulers called Satara Rajas and published as such in KM and the Wiggins Maheshwari catalogue (MW T-13, p.191). However, the present coin bears a Persian "S" on the reverse. One could possibly believe that the large "S" was added to denote the name Begum Somru, though this attribution is tenuous at best.

4228 Muhammad Akbar II (first reign, AH 1202; AD 1788), Silver Rupee, Shahjahanabad (Delhi), AH (1)203 Ahd, obv titles of Muhammad Akbar II and date (not listed in KM; Bhandare 2; see Spink-Taisei, Singapore Coin Auction 14, lot 1060; Baldwin's Auction 45, 2006, lot 1340). About extremely fine and extremely rare. £2000-3000 only three specimens believed known

The extraordinary rarity of this coin can be explained by the historical events surrounding it: the puppet reign of the Prince Muhammad Akbar (the favourite son of Shah 'Alam II) lasted only two days, 15th – 17th October 1788. Hijra year 1203 was the period of great turmoil, the rulers of Delhi changed from Shah Alam II to Bedar Bakht, from Bedar Bakht to Muhammad Akbar II and from Muhammad Akbar II to Shah Alam II once more. The young Prince Akbar II was put on the throne by the Rohilla chief Ghulam Qadir. Mirza Akbar Shah wrote to Nawab Faizullah Khan: "...on 14th Muharram (15th October) the imperial throne was illuminated by our august accession and the sound of the kettle-drum of felicitations reached the ears of the inhabitants of earth and the world above ... the face of gold and silver coins shone brighter than the sun and the moon by the effluence of the impression, of our name on them". This reign was very short lived, Ghulam Qadir ran away and Mahadaji Scindhia captured Delhi to reinstate the blind emperor Shah Alam II to the throne on 17th October 1788. It is interesting to note that the emperor has left us a written record of the fact that Khutba was read and coins were struck in both metals, gold and silver (at least for two days) and that both such coins have been discovered. For detailed discussion of the event and coinage of the puppets see the article by Dr Shailendra Bhandare "Muhammad Akbar: A pawn in politics: the first reign" ONS Newsletter 175, Spring 2003, pp.18-30

- 4229 Begum Somru, Silver Rupee, 11.05g, Dar al-Zafar Zebabad, year 45. Extremely fine and extremely rare. £7000-9000

Begum Somru was a most remarkable woman in the latter part of Mughal India. For almost 60 years she controlled a good deal of land in the Doab and maintained her own army. Born around 1751 and given the name, Munni, her early life is rather obscure. Moving to Delhi around 1760 with her mother, she entered the service of a German mercenary soldier named Walter Reinhardt. Reinhardt had previously served the French in India and had earned the nickname Le Sombre because of his severe nature. It is said that this nickname became corrupted to Somru. Over the years, Reinhardt, latterly with the forces he raised himself, served a whole range of different armies in India, particularly that of the Mughal emperor. Munni accompanied Reinhardt on his campaigns and they married in due course. Around the year 1777, the emperor granted Reinhardt a jagir in the Doab, which extended from Aligarh to beyond Muzaffarnagar. Within this territory, Reinhardt chose Sardhana for his and his army's headquarters. Reinhardt did not live long to enjoy his jagir, dying the following year. Munni, now known as the Begum Somru, soon emerged as the rightful ruler of Reinhardt's territory, this succession being confirmed by the emperor, Shah Alam II. Then things became complicated. The Begum needed a suitable officer to command her troops. Various Europeans entered her service, including for a while George Thomas. To command the troops, however, she appointed a certain Le Vaisseau. Presumably to consolidate his position he proposed marriage to the Begum, which was accepted. At this, Thomas left the Begum's service to set up his own army elsewhere.

Le Vaisseau's appointment was a mistake. Discipline in her army broke down to such an extent that the Begum and her husband planned to retire from their estates and seek refuge in the East India Company's territories. Her soldiers got wind of these plans and intercepted the couple on the road from Sardhana. Concerned at the treatment she would receive she attempted to commit suicide. Thinking she had succeeded, Le Vaisseau shot himself dead. The Begum, however, had been less successful and was taken wounded to Sardhana, where she was maltreated. At this juncture, George Thomas came to the rescue. He must have heard of the Begum's plight and moved towards Sardhana with some of his troops. With the approval of the local Maratha chiefs, who were now in overall command of the Doab, he issued the Begum's troops a stern ultimatum, which they heeded. The Begum was duly reinstated in her jagir, the officers and troops promised to behave themselves, and a new commander of her army was appointed in the form of a Monsieur Saleur.

After the Second Maratha War, the Doab came under British administration. In 1805, the Begum entered into an alliance with them and remained in her territories as a British vassal until her death in 1836.

The rupee offered here is one of an extremely rare issue first published by Whitehead in the Numismatic Chronicle [1926]. It is in the name of the Mughal emperor, Shah Alam II, is dated to the 45th regnal year of that ruler and bears the mintname: Dar al-Zafar Zebabad. It shows only the first two digits of the Hijri year: 12xx, but a specimen in the British Museum has the date 1218. Whitehead stated that "this issue was struck at Sardhana in the Meerut District in the year of Lord Lake's victory of Delhi by the Begum Sumru Zebu-n-nisa, Begum". The Hijri year 1218 did start in April of 1803, the year the British occupied the Doab. Begum Somru was given the title, Zabu-n-Nisa, by the Mughal emperor, Shah Alam II. This would account for the mintname Zebabad, which, it is assumed, was given to the Begum's capital of Sardhana.

To own this coin is to own a fascinating piece of history.

- 4262 Bengal Presidency, Copper Pattern Paisa, 9.66g, based on the design for the perpetual 19 San Sicca issue of 1791-1793. Nice very fine and very rare. £300-400

bought from Henry Christensen, c.1970, coin dealer, New Jersey, USA

This piece would appear to be a pattern, probably machine-struck, as the top line of the obverse has at least one incompletely engraved letter, as if copied from a coin where the top line is only partly struck.

- 4263 Bengal Presidency, Copper Pattern, 6.33g, thin flan stike, based on the design for the Mohur 1825, fine edge graining to left. Good very fine and very rare. £400-500

bought from Henry Christensen, c.1970, coin dealer, New Jersey, USA

Presumably a mint trial piece

- 4264 Bengal Presidency, Prinsep Copper Coinage, ½-, ¼-, 1/8- and 1/16-Anna (Pr 191, 194, 197, 200); 1-Pai Sikka (2), year 37, 8.44g, 8.52g (cf Pr 204). Extremely fine and better, the 1/8-Anna nicer than the KM plate coin. (6) £100-150

all bought from Henry Christensen, c.1970, coin dealer, New Jersey, USA

- 4265 Bombay Presidency, Copper ½-Anna, Pice and ½-Pice, issue for Southern Concan, 1820-1821 issue (Pr 323, 324/5, 327). Fine to very fine. (3) £100-150

- 4266 Bombay Presidency, Proof ½-Pice, 1791, bale mark, date below, rev scales (KM 192). In NGC holder graded PF64BN. £150-200

ex Gardener collection, a family collection of the British Raj

- 4267 Madras Presidency, Gold 2-Pagodas, 5.92g, issue of 1808-1815, 18 stars, stop between "PAGODAS" and "HUN", small depression between "TWO" and "PAGODAS" (KM 358). Extremely fine. £600-800

- 4268 Madras Presidency, Gold Star Pagoda, 3.43g, issued 1740-1807 (KM 303). Bold extremely fine. £100-150

- 4269 Uniform Coinage, Queen Victoria, Gold Mohur, 1841, Calcutta mint, continuous legend, no initial on truncation, rev lion and palm tree (Pr 18; KM 461.2). Original strike with pleasant red tone, lovely extremely fine, a choice example of this rare issue. £2500-3000

- 4270 Uniform Coinage, Queen Victoria, Gold Mohur, 1841, Calcutta mint, divided legend, W.W. incuse on truncation, no serif on cross-bar of "4", rev lion and palm tree (F 761; Pr 22; KM 462.1). An original strike, extremely fine with subdued lustre, rare. £1500-2000
